RULES

1. Register your entries by email or post, to reach Jen Logan, by Monday 28th July. Pay by cheque or by cash on the day. No cash in the post please.
2. On the day of the show, computer generated labels with your name/number and the classes you have entered will be handed to competitors. These can then be secured to exhibits in the usual way.
3. Only one entry allowed in all classes, except in Stick classes where no more than three entries are allowed.
4. Articles in the Knitting and Miscellaneous classes must be the bona fide work of the competitor and completed within the last 2 years.
5. The Committee is not responsible for exhibits.
6. Exhibits can be staged from 8am to 10am. Late arrivals will not be accepted, as judging commences at 10.05am sharp. Please return to uplift them between 4.30pm-5.00pm or risk disposal.
7. Entry Money: 40p per entry. Competitors with fifteen or more entries will receive a free admission ticket to the Showground. Please submit entries early giving plenty of time for your free admission ticket to be posted out to you.
8. The judges decision is final.
9. The SCBU baby beanie hat (Class 41) is to be donated to the Borders General Hospital.

Please note in the baking section we are going to use 1lb loaf tins to minimize waste. Your normal recipe will work perfectly, just by splitting it into two 1lb tins and then you will have one for the show and one for the freezer!
