RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The Directors reserve to themselves the right of refusing, cancelling, or prohibiting the exhibition of entries from any person who, after 1st January 1977, has been expelled from the membership of any Agricultural or Dairy Society, or who may have attempted to obtain a prize by giving a false Certificate, or by other unfair means, or who is under exclusion from any Breed Society for fraudulent practices.
2. The Directors reserve to themselves the right of refusing any entries they may think fit to exclude, or to prohibit the exhibition of any entry, and to retain the entry money paid for such entry, if it be proved to their satisfaction that said entry was contrary to any of the Association's regulations.
3. All stock exhibited at the Show must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor in whose name it is entered. In these rules and regulations the word "stock" shall include animals and poultry of any kind whatever.
4. Stock entered for competition or exhibition and actually in the Show grounds is subject to the control and under orders of the Directors, Secretary, or other Show officials and may not be withdrawn from competition or exhibition without the consent of the Directors or Secretary.
5. It is the responsibility of exhibitors to ensure that stock brought into the Showfield by them or on their behalf is free from disease and under proper control at all times. The Association shall not be responsible for any illness, disease, injury or damage contracted or caused to stock, stock attendants, exhibitors or others connected with such stock on account of the state of health of or by the actions of any stock on the Show ground. All exhibitors and others submitting entries shall be deemed to have accepted the terms of these rules.
6. Persons making insulting remarks to or unduly interfering with any Exhibitor, Judge, Steward or other Official while in performance of their duties or refusing to accept or display tickets, or rosettes, etc., awarded by the Judge or any unseemly conduct shall be considered guilty of misconduct and dealt with under these rules.
7. All persons in charge of Stock or other exhibits and all persons admitted into the Show ground shall be subject to the rules governing the same and shall obey the orders of the Association's representatives. All exhibitors are held responsible for the conduct of employees and helpers.
8. The Stewards have power to enforce all the regulations of the Association in their different departments.
9. A protest having reference to exhibits at the Show may be lodged by any exhibitor competing in the same class. Such protests shall be lodged with the Secretary before four o'clock on the day of the Show, stating clearly the grounds of objection and accompanied by a deposit of Five Pounds for each protest. This deposit shall be forfeited if in the opinion of the Directors the protest was a frivolous one. The Directors reserve the power to lodge any protest themselves without fee. In either case the Secretary shall give written notice to the exhibitor of such stock as may be protested against within seven days of the Show. All protests shall be considered by the Directors at their first meeting after the Show, or at a meeting specially called for the purpose and the Secretary shall communicate the result to the exhibitor and protester within seven days of such meeting.
10. The violation of any of the regulations shall render the offending exhibitor liable to forfeiture of all premiums awarded or such proportion as the Directors may think fit, expulsion from the Association, and prohibition from competing at any future Show of the Association.
11. The decision of the Directors shall in all cases be final in connection with the conduct of the Show. All persons present at the Show whether as a Judge, Exhibitor, visitor, or otherwise, shall be deemed thereby to have agreed to refer the subject matter of such a decision to the final determination of the Directors to the exclusion of all Courts of Law.
12. The Directors reserve to themselves the right to report the decisions under these rules, along with the names and addresses of the persons decided against, to kindred Associations or Societies, and to such newspapers or journals as they may think proper. Every person present at the Show in whatever capacity shall be deemed to have consented to such measures being taken.
13. No exhibitor shall have more than three entries in any one class.
14. All livestock must be on the ground not later than 9.a.m. and shall not be removed before 3 p.m. without written consent obtained from the Secretary. Attendants must remain in charge of their stock while on the Show ground. Any infringement of this Rule will cause forfeiture of Tickets and Prizes.

16. The Veterinary Adviser will examine the Grazing Cattle before judging commences.
17. The Entry Fees shall be stated under the various sections.

19. Admission tickets will be sent to all exhibitors, who are not Members of the Association, whose entry fees amount to £5 or over.
20. Exhibitors must state on Entry Forms whether or not their exhibits are eligible for the Special Prizes. If no declaration is made at entry it will be assumed that exhibits are not eligible for any of these Special Prizes. Entry forms must contain entries for only one Exhibitor.
21. Admission tickets will be sent to exhibitors for the admission to the Show Field of their employees who are in charge of their Stock. A maximum of two tickets will be allowed for entries in any one section.

SECTION III - HORSES

HEALTH AND SAFETY: Competitors must wear a safety/kite mark hard hat with a chinstrap.

Please note that in all equine classes, exhibitors are expected to present themselves for the class when its called and failure to do so will result in inclusion in the class at the discretion of the judge

Equine Flu

Berwickshire Agricultural Association would like to issue the following guidelines for this year's equine entries: All entries must be fit and well, showing no signs of illness, or having shown any signs, within the previous 10 days. We will not examine passports although all passports should be carried to the show. Although we understand that individuals are obviously concerned for the health and safety of their own individual animals, the risk is no higher than at any other time - it has just been brought to the attention of a wider number of people because of its presence in racing. Please be bio-security aware and to practice good sensible bio-security measures:

- Do not share equipment, buckets etc with others
- Maintain space from all other horses and don't allow nose-to-nose contact with other horses that have not been in contact previously.

ONLINE ENTRIES and payment can be made from <https://bcshow.lite.events>
